Beef Heifer Classes will be broken based on age. Classes for heifers will be broken on age depending and breaks will be based on the number of entries. Separation by breed will take place depending on the number of entries of a specific breed. Breed separation classes are at the discretion of the show planning committee and show judges. Heifers must 2 years or younger as of show day.

Animal Health: Health papers will be required for all animals coming from outside of NC. A certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI; health certificate) issued by an accredited veterinarian within thirty (30) days prior to arrival at the show is REQUIRED. One CVI per family/farm. CVI must include the following: Individual identification for each animal using the Premise ID number. A USDA metal ear tag or other approved National uniform ear tagging system, a registration tattoo number, or a registration brand from a breed association. Under the federal ADT law, all show exhibits have to have an official ID regardless of age.

Cancellations and Refunds: NO entry fees will be refunded. Cancellations received after the early entry date will not be refunded, no exceptions.

Care of Animals: (Barn Space) It is preferred that hogs show off the trailer. If pens are required please notify us. We will make every attempt to accommodate, but we must be notified at the time of entry. Goats and sheep will have pens provided as well as tie outs for cattle.
